2019. With the Humacao Campus Choir in Cuba. Joy, Brotherhood and Culture.

The trip was also used to open a dialogue with officials from the Cuban Ministry of Education to explore the possibility of Cuban nursing students completing their studies at the Humacao campus.

2018. In Washington DC, meeting with Resident Commissioner Jennifer Gonzalez to finalize efforts to obtain millions of dollars for the Humacao campus. During that trip, the achievement of 10.3 million dollars from the United States Department of Education was confirmed, for the development of a Dormitory and Activities Center.

2017. The Humacao Campus was the most devastated by Hurricane Maria. There were several who proposed that it remain closed. This was not the case.

The entire campus community: faculty, students, employees, under the leadership of Dr. Ríos Maury, worked intensely to reopen it, and this became a reality 6 weeks after the hurricane. They worked with generators and in tents, as in times past, but with great energy, determination and leadership. Thousands of university degrees and jobs were saved. A feat of resilience. In 2018, hundreds of students graduated. In addition, thousands continued to move forward in their lives.

2018. Main Speaker in the Graduation of Palms Academy.

2019. During the opening from the Center for Sustained Dialogue, entity pioneer.

2019. With his wife, Lizzie Enid Torres, during an event in the Campus attended by mayors, community leaders, and entrepreneurs from the eastern central region. Hundreds of students and employees also attended.

2019. Dr. Rivers Maury received recognition from 7 out of 8 mayors from both political parties in the region where he works at the Humacao campus, as well as from nearly all business and community leaders. They expressed their support for his leadership in the region, which has turned the campus into a catalyst for labor and community development. This leadership has had a positive impact on student recruitment and the generation of income at UPRH.

POLÍTICOS Y EMPRESARIOS DE LA REGIÓN APOYAN PERMANENCIA DEL RECTOR INTERINO DE LA UPRH, DR. HÉCTOR RÍOS MAURY

Un grupo de alcaldes de la región centro oriental del país y otros líderes de diversas entidades del sureste enviaron una carta al presidente de la Universidad de Puerto Rico (UPR), Dr. Jorge Haddock en la que manifiestan su apoyo al Dr. Héctor Ríos Maury, rector interino del recinto de Humacao para que se convierta en rector en propiedad, según un comunicado de prensa.

Ríos Maury ocupa el puesto de manera interina desde julio de 2017 y según los alcaldes de ambos partidos y demás dirigentes firmantes, concuerdan que éste ha realizado un encomiable trabajo, positivo para el recinto y la región, en medio de un periodo de grandes retos, como los huracanes Irma y María. De hecho fue el recinto humacaeño el más devastado por el Huracán María en todo Puerto Rico.

Los siete alcaldes firmantes de la carta de respaldo, cinco del Partido Popular y dos del Partido Nuevo Progresista, así como el representante, Reinaldo Vargas también apoyan a Ríos Maury, un catadrático en Administración de Empresas, con estudios en Puerto Rico, Estados Unidos, Francia y España, y una extensa hoja de servicios y haberes profesionales, que incluyen la publicación de seis (6) libros y más de doscientos (200) artículos profesionales y columnas periodísticas y desempeños académicos en distintas partes del mundo.

En la carta, los alcaldes y demás firmantes reconocen que además de la opinión del liderato multi sectorial de la región centro oriental es importante auscultar el sentir de la propia comunidad del Recinto de Humacao. Ríos Maury enfrenta el reto de la esposa del representante José Aponte, la Dra. Aída Rodríguez Roig, quien es profesora de educación y hasta diciembre pasado ocupó un puesto de confianza en la administración de Ríos Maury.

2019. At the Interuniversity Games, Celebrating a gold medal from the owl Erika Serrano.

2019. With the Choir of the Enclosure of Humacao in WAPA Television.

2018/2019. In others activities and facets as Chancellor of the UPRH.

2019. In the Institute Technological of Santo Domingo (INTEC), together to their authorities. The UPRH and INTEC established a pre-agreement of collaboration.

2019. Dr. Rivers Maury, with a nourished cluster of Faculty, with reason of the presentation of the magazines Exegesis, and Quadrivium, of the UPRH.
